FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Robinson Pharma Inc. (RPI) joins the effort to fight preventable blindness in children with a major donation to Vitamin Angels. RPI will join other leading companies in the natural products industry in the effort to eliminate vitamin A deficiency-induced blindness and infection, a major health threat to the most vulnerable of the worlds' children.

As part of its continuing efforts as a responsible corporate citizen, RPI has joined with Vitamin Angels and will underwrite vitamin A therapy for 40,000 children this coming year. RPI CEO, Tuong Nguyen stated, "The nutritional products industry has supported the incredible growth and prosperity of our company and our customers. This donation is a way of sharing this good fortune in a meaningful way with those who are most in need. We feel that the work of Vitamin Angels clearly demonstrates the profound good that can come from supplemental nutrition and we are very happy that we can help facilitate Vitamin Angels' critically important work."

Vitamin Angels is a not-for-profit (501(c) 3 organization that is a leader in the global effort to eliminate micronutrient deficiency induced disease and death in children. Vitamin Angels is currently supports projects in 43 countries around the world with active interventions providing nutrients such as vitamin A to at-risk populations of children.
